Footnotes:

<sup>1/</sup> Period Covered: The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.

<sup>2/</sup> Electronic Filing: In addition to paper reports, a committee must file electronically with the Secretary of State if, since January 1, 2000, the committee receives contributions or makes expenditures totaling $50,000 or more. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's website at www.sos.ca.gov.

Paper filings are also required except as described in footnote 3.

<sup>3/</sup> $5,000 Reports: Candidates required to file electronically must file this report if they receive a contribution of $5,000 or more from a single source at any time other than the 90-day election cycle (see footnote 4), including after the election. No paper copies are required, and no copies are required to be filed with other filing officers.

<sup>4/</sup> 90-Day Election Cycle Reports: "Election cycle" is defined as 90 days prior to an election and ending on the date of the election. Candidates and committees required to file electronically must file this report if they receive a contribution of $1,000 or more from a single source during the corresponding periods. No paper copies are required, and no copies are required to be filed with other filing officers, including during the late contribution period.

Additional Notes:

- Post-Election Requirements: After an election, reporting requirements will depend on whether the candidate is successful.
- Late Statements: Except for deadlines that fall on Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, filing deadlines may not be extended. Statements filed late are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.

Candidates should refer to the FPPC Campaign Information Manual for state candidates (Manual 1) to determine their filing obligations. Be sure to check the FPPC web site (www.fppc.ca.gov) for updated information.
